Dear Editor

Charity Football Match Friday 22nd July

Many residents will be aware of the shocking road accident involving two local footballers, Shaun Whiter and Joey Abbs, which resulted in Shaun having both legs amputated. A football match was held on the village green followed by a bbq, music and raffle in the Sports & Social Club.

The evening raised an incredible £1,250 towards the justgiving fund set up for Shaun and Joey.

I wish to offer my sincere thanks and gratitude at the overwhelming generosity shown by everyone who played, supported, donated and was involved in making the evening a fantastic community event.

Given the circumstances, and other awful events happening around the world, the evening was something everyone in the village can feel proud to be associated with and perhaps go a small way to restoring our faith in mankind.

Yours sincerely

Paul Prime, Chairman, Bar Hill FC

Dear Editor

I was just wondering if any other patient of the Bar Hill Maple Surgery has had issues with their online prescription service?

Over the last three months I have used the online service to get my repeat prescriptions. I have requested that this is sent over to the pharmacy at Tesco, and I have given them at least 5-6 days' notice before I have run out of my medicine.

On each of these occasions when I have been to pick my prescription up from Tesco, it is not available because it has either not been sent to them or they have no record of it being sent. They then ask me to check with the surgery if it has been sent as it is not their fault.

I then go back to the surgery and ask if it has been sent?? and they say yes it has been sent to Tesco pharmacy, and they should have it, it is their fault I have not got my medication??

Neither the pharmacy nor the surgery seems to be concerned that I had run out of my medicine, all they wanted to do was to blame each other on why the prescription had not been issued!

From now on I will use the green paper copy of my repeat prescription and do it myself.

It's funny how I can order my pants and socks from Next at 11.55pm on a Tuesday and they are available to pick up on Wednesday at 10am, yet when ordering my vital medication online it seems to go missing!

Best wishes

Bill Proudfoot, Watermead.

Arrangements are being made for the Flood Advisory Service to come out with an exhibition vehicle, to be parked in the Tesco car park, so that residents from Bar Hill and surrounding villages have the opportunity to visit. This would be for two days, either week commencing 26th September or week commencing 17th October 2016. There will be a notice at the Parish Council office, or look out for the vehicle.

May we implore residents to please trim back foliage overhanging boundary fences, particularly if it encroaches on to a footpath? Highways England will be at Bar Hill Village Hall on Saturday 1st October regarding A14 improvements – further details to follow.

— BAR HILL'S GOLDEN JUBILEE —

On 24th May 1967 Bar Hill's first residents, Mr and Mrs Bob Burry and their daughter Elizabeth moved into their new bungalow at 58 Acorn Avenue. A Golden Jubilee year is being planned for 2017, from a formal dinner at the beginning of February to a 'big weekend' in October. The pivotal event of the year will be a 'bigger than ever' Fête to be held on 1st July. It is hoped to arrange a visit by a member of the Royal Family at some point during the year.

A commemorative programme will be published at the beginning of the year. This will consist of photographs of the last fifty years as well as a list of events. Village organisations, in organising their programmes for next year, are asked to think of an event or events which can be included in the programme.

If you wish for any further details, please do not hesitate to get in touch.

— NEWSLETTER FROM HEIDI ALLEN MP —

They say a week is a long time in politics – June and July brought enough to last all year! It would be impossible not to refer to the EU Referendum; I've received an unprecedented amount of correspondence from mostly (though by no means all) disappointed and worried constituents. As I was unable to reply to everyone individually, I held public meetings in Cambourne and Duxford. Thank you to everyone who came along – videos of the meetings and information regarding constitutional issues and policy areas are on my website.

Since the result, I've had meetings with representatives from Councils, academic, science, health and agricultural sectors. Whilst we don't yet have an outline of terms of negotiation, I'm sure they will start to emerge when the House returns after Summer recess. I will continue to listen to the needs of all sectors and ensure those of South Cambridgeshire are to the fore.

On to the more light hearted duties of your constituency MP: I was delighted to be invited to pull the first pint at the Shelford Feast, part of a week-long series of fundraising events which raised an incredible amount of money – I believe they are still counting it!

Just ahead of the Summer break, I was able to visit three more schools: Stapleford, Trumpington and Guilden Morden. The hard work and commitment of teachers, parents and governors is plain to see, so I was devastated when our new Secretary of State, Justine Greening, announced that the Department for Education would delay for another year the introduction of the new Fairer Funding Formula. Although she was very clear that no local authority would receive less funding this year, I have asked officers at the County Council to digest what this will mean for us in real terms. I want to assure you that I support our schools 100% and am seeking to meet with Justine as soon as possible.

My next drop-in surgery is at Queen Edith's on 3rd September. Please see my website for details: www.heidisouthcambs.co.uk/residents-drop-surgeries or do get in touch if I can help you with anything. You can contact me by phone on 01954 212707 or via e-mail at heidi.allen.mp@parliament.uk

Thank you for your continued support.

— NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH —

Key-safe

Cars

With car security becoming more sophisticated, thieves increasingly want to get hold of the actual keys to a vehicle. So it is important to keep your car keys safe:

- ⊗ don't leave them near the front door – they could be hooked through the letter box;
- ✓ conceal them at night – in case anyone breaks in to your house;
- ⊗ never leave your car engine running while you go back in the house, however briefly – the opportunist won't take a moment;
- ⊗ when you drive somewhere don't leave your house keys in the car – if your car is stolen your house could be ransacked before you get home.

House

- ⊗ never leave a key under an outside doormat, plant pot etc even temporarily – someone may have seen you and even an opportunist may check around hopefully;
- ✓ better to leave a spare key with a trusted neighbour – but not labelled in case the neighbour gets burgled;
- ✓ or buy a key safe to go in an outside meter cupboard or similar place – but as with pin numbers, don't write down the code number in an obvious place;
- ⊗ once inside a house an intruder will often first unlock a door in case they need a quick escape so do not leave keys in obvious places as burglars know where to look – BUT keys must be readily available to you in an emergency and remember to show their location to your guests particularly if they are staying overnight;
- ✓ similarly keep window keys near where they will be needed by you, including as an emergency exit, but not in the lock or visible from outside – an intruder may be willing to risk the noise of breaking glass in order to unlock and open a window but is less likely to break glass if they would then have to climb in through the broken window.

As with all safety, a little thought can save a lot of trouble.

— BAR HILL CRICKET CLUB —

The highlight of the month for us was the superb batting displays by Adam Dean, Tom Yewbrey and Sam Wilson to set up a victory over Histon III.

Adam hit 64, Tom 59 not out and Sam 29 not out to steer Bar Hill to their target of 215 for the loss of only four wickets and with more than four overs in hand – without doubt our best performance of the season. Jack Colding earlier picked up two wickets in Histon's innings.

The victory avenged a defeat by the same opposition the previous week, when Histon again batted first and were restricted to 168 for 6, with two wickets each for Nathan Dean and Phil Orvis. But Bar Hill managed only 134 in reply, despite 40 by Paul Stimpson and 28 not out, a personal best, by David Underhay.

Also this month, we were involved in a thrilling tied match against St Ives. Martin Haslop was the leading wicket-taker with three as St Ives scored 161 for 8, but Bar Hill were then bowled out for the same score, with Phil Orvis making 37. The final match of the month was away to Cambridge St Giles, and Sam Wilson's brilliant bowling spell of 4 for 24 restricted the hosts to 165 for 8 in their 40 overs. But despite Chris Howse hitting 43, including four sixes, Bar Hill could not make it past 123.

Two big events are coming up in September – including the club's 30th birthday celebration. We are inviting all current and former players and club members and their families to join us at the Sports & Social Club from 3pm on Sunday 18th September for a reunion including free food and the chance to swap 'war stories' over a drink. Anyone who has old photos of the club is asked to bring them along. Many thanks to the Sports & Social Club for their support of this event.

The previous day, Saturday 17th September, sees our annual duck race on the Cam at Newnham, starting at noon at Cambridge Canoe Club. Tickets are on sale for £2 each, with cash prizes for the top three places, including £50 for the winner. For details, call the number below or visit www.barhillcricket.org.uk

We are planning a race night in October – details next month. Keep an eye on our website for more information about the club.

Mental Health

Cambridgeshire and Peterborough NHS foundation Trust (CPFT) has a Psychological Wellbeing Service which improves the availability of access to psychological therapies (APT). Residents can be referred via their GP or can self-refer via www.cpft.nhs.uk or phone 0300 300 0055. The service provides a range of treatments from guided self-help for people with moderate mood swings and anxiety to cognitive behavioural therapy for people with moderate to severe difficulties. They also offer group therapies.

The Mental Health Vanguard Team are rolling out a Urgent and Emergency Care Vanguard Mental Health service for a year-long trial period from 19th September 2016. Website: www.cpft.nhs.uk/about-us/mental-health-vanguard.htm. Professional mental health first responders will attend people of all ages who urgently need help with mental health problems. Calls will be answered 24 hours a day and if necessary the first responder can attend and develop an appropriate action plan. There will also be a safe place for crisis which will offer short term support. First responders will work closely with the police and a member of staff will be present at the police station at all times. CPFT also has a group who work on Mental Health interventions at work and in the community. We have introduced training across the housing sector to assist staff to manage mental health issues. This has been well attended and has helped to increase communication across the sector.

CPFT is looking at positive ways to address loneliness. This is often a pre-condition of mental illness and may be addressed within the regular communications and activities of the Council.

Have your say on Grosvenor's and Cambridge United's plans for sporting facilities and new homes

Local people are being urged to have their say on plans to build new sporting facilities and hundreds of new homes to on the edge of Cambridge, as well as a redevelopment of the Abbey Stadium.

Plans submitted by Grosvenor propose a sporting village and hundreds of new homes in the green belt on land between the Trumpington Park & Ride and the M11 to the south of Cambridge.

The plans include 520 homes; indoor sports hall and retail; outdoor floodlit cycling track and BMX area; floodlit all weather pitches; parking. The site is 45.58 hectares, roughly the same size as 45 football pitches.

Plans submitted at the same time for the Abbey Stadium on Newmarket Road would see the north stand redeveloped, with the east and west stands potentially being redeveloped by the club as part of future phases along with the capacity being increased to 11,000. The plans also include three buildings near to the new north stand and entrance to the site from Newmarket Road, including a new ticket office, club shop, supporters bar, hostel and student accommodation. By moving the pitch toward the South Stand there are also plans to build eight homes near the entrance from Newmarket Road.

Plans for the sporting village and homes to the south of the city are not included in the Local Plans by the two councils. They are currently being independently assessed by Government inspectors. Grosvenor has said that the sporting village and hundreds of new homes to the south of the city would finance the redevelopment of the Abbey Stadium.

This will be considered by the councils as part of the assessment of applications as they look at the benefits of the proposals against the harm to the green belt. To have your say on the planning application for the sporting village and new homes visit www.cambs.gov.uk, click on the reference number S/1925/16/OL. You can also view the application by visiting www.cambridge.gov.uk, click on the planning application button, then view a planning application and use reference number 16/1376/OUT.

To comment on the Abbey Stadium proposals visit www.cambridge.gov.uk, click on the planning application button and use reference number 16/1375/OUT. Both public consultations will close on Monday 19 September. Extra time has been given by the two councils to allow for the summer holiday period.

SOY & HONEY CHICKEN WITH COCONUT BROWN RICE

Ingredients

- 4 teaspoons clear honey
- 4 teaspoons soy sauce
- 450g/1lb boneless, skinless chicken thighs
- 150g/5oz brown rice
- pinch salt
- ½ teaspoon coconut oil
- 1 tablespoon black sesame seeds
- handful fresh coriander leaves
- 1 teaspoon pumpkin seeds, chopped

To serve

- 1 tablespoon sesame oil
- 1 tablespoon rapeseed oil
- 2 heads of bok choy, halved

Method

1. In a bowl, mix together the honey and soy sauce. Add the chicken thighs and mix until completely coated.
2. Place the coated chicken thighs into a cold, deep, heavy-based saucepan. Place the pan onto a medium heat and cook until the chicken is cooked through and the honey and soy coating has thickened to a glossy glaze. It is important to start cooking the chicken in a cold pan so the meat stews as it cooks. If the pan is hot, the honey and soy sauce will caramelise before the meat is cooked through.
3. Meanwhile, add the rice, 300ml/10½ fl oz. water and salt to a separate pan and bring to the boil. Once the water is boiling, reduce the heat and simmer the rice, covered, until tender (about 30 minutes).
4. For the bok choy, heat the sesame and rapeseed oil in a large frying pan over a medium heat. Add the bok choy and cook for 3-5 minutes, or until the leaves have wilted.
5. When the rice is cooked, fluff it with a fork, then stir through the coconut oil, sesame seeds and coriander. Sprinkle over the chopped pumpkin seeds.
6. Spoon the rice onto serving plates and top with the chicken. Place the bok choy alongside.

— SEPTEMBER BULLETIN —
FROM CAMBRIDGESHIRE
FIRE AND RESCUE SERVICE

Harvest is upon us and we're calling on local residents to help our fight against straw stack arson.

Stack fires can quickly spread and not only endanger people and livestock, but also life-long work on farms. Stacks burn very slowly meaning crews are committed for long periods of time, making them unavailable for other emergencies. Don't forget, many firefighters attending incidents like these in rural parts of our county are on-call personnel and their retention at a stack fire impacts directly upon business and services in their community.

What can you do? We're urging residents and those passing through rural areas to keep a careful watch. Do you see someone acting suspiciously around stores of hay or straw? Is there an unusual vehicle near farm buildings? Become a community member of Arson Watch and keep an eye on stacks in your area.

Report suspicious activity to police on 101, or dial 999 if you see a stack fire.

For the latest news, incidents and safety advice, or to contact us, either call 01480 444500; log on to www.cambsfire.gov.uk; sign up to e-mail alerts; or find us on Twitter, Instagram, YouTube and Facebook.

— CAMBRIDGE PINKS —

Breast Cancer Now's Wear It Pink event will be on Friday 21st October. You can get your participation pack from <http://wearitpink.org/signup>

Cambridge Pinks is the regional group for Breast Cancer Now. By 2050 we believe breast cancer will have taken its last life – but only if we all act now. If you would like to get involved in fundraising, or find out more about us and how your donations will be used, visit our website www.breastcancernow.org

Breast Cancer Now's mission is to fund innovative world class research into breast cancer. Here in Cambridge it is funding researchers who are learning about the genetics of breast cancer and finding new genes involved.

— SCAM OF THE MONTH —

Beware! Online shopping websites are being used by fraudsters to advertise non-existent items at bargain prices.

Two recent examples are:

1. Drones (personal flying devices that often carry cameras and can be navigated remotely by smartphones or hand-held controllers) – after a victim agrees to purchase a drone, fraudsters request payment via bank transfer saying that it will quicken the delivery process. After transferring the money the buyer never receives the drone and the fraudster blocks the victim to prevent further conversation.
2. Cars – after agreeing via e-mail to purchase the vehicle from the fraudsters, buyers receive e-mails purporting to be from Amazon Payments and/or Amazon Flexible Payment Service stating that their money will be held in an 'escrow account' (a third party bank account). Once happy with the purchase the e-mail indicates the money will be released to the seller, therefore offering 'buyer protection'. In reality these e-mails are fraudulent and do not come from Amazon, the accounts are controlled by fraudsters.

How to protect yourself:

- Be suspicious if a price appears to be a bargain.
 - Research companies and check feedback online by searching associated phone numbers or e-mail addresses of the seller. Feedback will give you useful information about transactions other buyers may have made.
 - Avoid paying by bank transfer. Use online payment options such as PayPal, which help to protect you.
 - Remember that Amazon does not provide an escrow/ third party account to purchase items.
 - Whenever possible, particularly for cars, meet the seller and view the vehicle before parting with any money.
- If you, or anyone you know, has been affected by fraud or any other scam, report it to Action Fraud at: www.actionfraud.police.uk or call 0300 123 2040.

— IF YOUR DOG COULD TALK —

Dog: WHAT DOING?
Owner: Nothing. I just stood up.
Dog: WHERE GOING?
Owner: I'm only walking five feet to get a piece of fruit from the bowl. I'm not even leaving the room.
Dog: CAN I COME?
Owner: Yes, if you like, but I'm only...
Dog: I COME TOO.
Dog: WHAT DOING?
Owner: I need to open the door.
Dog: I HALP.
Owner: But you're in front of the door I want to open. Move please.
Dog: I HALP.
Owner: Sigh.
Dog: WHERE GOING?
Owner: I'm going back to the exact place I was sitting a minute ago.
Dog: CAN I COME?
Owner: Sure...

— UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE —

Always wanted to pick up a new skill but didn't know where to start? Longing to get to grips with old Icelandic literature in your retirement? Maybe you have dreamed of studying philosophy? The University of the Third Age (U3A) might be your answer.

U3A is an organisation of men and women who regularly gather together to share experiences, knowledge, philosophies, values and ideas. It attracts members from all backgrounds and encourages everyone to have a go. It is a forum for the growth of the human spirit, the development of friendships and the exploration of ideas to enrich quality of life in the Third Age (retirement). Classes are built around self-help study groups, with no exams or qualifications.

U3A is run by its members. It has over 360,000 participants in more than 960 U3As around the UK. As a movement it has defied the trends of shrinking adult education classes.

There is nothing formal about the arrangements. There are no exams or certificates to achieve. Informal learning is just that: informal. You are in a convivial environment and, as such, learning is fun.

People join U3A for many reasons: it may be the next thing after retirement; the children may have grown and flown; a loved one may have passed; they may just want to 'give it a try'. Combatting loneliness is a powerful effect of joining a U3A.

U3A members come from all walks of life. As a self-help organisation we know everyone has something to contribute. Our concept of 'those who learn will teach and those who teach will learn' bears fruit in our non-judgemental attitude.

For more information about the U3A visit www.u3a.org.uk/.
